The mystery is why it has to be told once more, especially in a volume of almost 1000 pages. Still, the level of detail, including verbatim testimony from subsequent courts-martial, is impressive. Book Club Kit - The following day, December 8, Congress declared war on Japan. Other warnings from ships off the harbor entrance were still being processed or awaiting confirmation when the attacking planes began bombing and strafing. Nelson gives sufficient graphic details to make the reader truly understand that 'no one wins a war'.
