This is the very theme of our current study: the profound meaning of the link we have come across elsewhere between the two-fold integration that esoteric tawhid accomplishes and the integration which at once renders the witness of the unificent One, the One and the Many, a unified balanced being, in whom the myriad forces of light are deployed. Adler, regarded as the most formidable intellect among the early Freud circle, was a socialist who in had written a health manual for the tailoring trade.
