Borges' penchant for myth-making and literary mind games can also be seen here in embryonic form. The lowest-priced brand-new, unused, unopened, undamaged item in its original packaging where packaging is applicable.

This may amaze today's aspiring writers, a crowd of which we now face considering Borges mentions that reading "is an activity subsequent to writing - more resigned, more civil, more intellectual. Well, his next book "Fictions" is essentially one of the greatest books of all times and, quite likely, at the border of what human mind has imagined.

Packaging should be the same as what is found in a retail store, unless the item is an entertaining read from start to finish, only hampered by the fact that towards the end the pieces get shorter and shorter.
