I feel if I made the promise to myself that I would not go after success if it meant more stress, and at times, less freedom, that I would have to break that promise because I feel great success does come with the sacrifice of time, especially in the beginning. Whatanawesomeandtruedeclaration. I often question who I am to think I deserve a better life. You're already more and less than whatever you can know. Forareally,reallylongtime.I was worn out on paint contracting and had been looking to start a new business for many years.
