The sounds they hear are also very clearly recalled: the spoon clicking in an empty jar against voices in the background; Jilly crying as Jolly says, "I can't do it alone;" and the climatic scene when Jilly is choking and Jolly says, "Breathe. I found the description of fabulously illustrated children's books that admittedly made me want to read the Pictures in Words books maddening. This makes me sad since early childhood as a developmental stage is from birth-age 8! TothepointthatsometimesIjustdon'tdoitinfrontoftheclass.I love "Talking, Drawing, Writing" too! They then hired me to be the literacy coach for two years so we could implement balanced literacy.
