Guest regions: Madrid, Burgos and Extremadura. Torre Parque Canaima. Some of de Chasca's conclusions point to a surprisingly complex and subtle use of numbers, but this is in keeping with what we have learned about other aspects of the poet's technique; and de Chasca makes it clear that the poet generally used numbers for realistic rather than symbolic purposes. Another kind of underlying pattern is figura, or typography. This is, of course, a misunderstanding of the nature of literature in general and of epic in particular, as Spitzer pointed out in a closely reasoned article full of acute literary insights I shall never advocate an excessive purism that condemns anything new in the matter of language. Research Seminars.

Other educational concerns Bell did not overlook secondary education. I can hardly conceive of any doubt about this, in an age that is, par excellence, one of association and representation; in an age marked by the proliferation of societies concerned with agriculture, commerce, industry and public welfare; in an age of representative government.
