Dumas also wrote plays and magazine articles, and was a prolific correspondent.

While Villefort was burying the child, he was stabbed by the smuggler Bertuccio, who unearthed the child and resuscitated.

My problems with this book, and the reasons it gets 4 stars rather than 5, are extremely spoilerish: view spoiler [

The Count's revenge extends itself to innocent members of the original plotters' families, which he justifies by wrong-headedly quoting the Old Testament scripture about the punishment of God extending itself to the third and fourth generations of their children.

As I started nearing the end and seeing how all of these small details were coming am in search of the other versions of this famous novel. Stock Image.
