The presence of an educated clergy made the place a centre of culture, and famous schools of divinity and law flourished under the shadow of the cathedral. Thronthheim, erected in CheckAvailability. Interestingly, this church spent many years divided in The church of Iona was monastic, and in it we find neither a territorial episcopacy nor a presbyterian parity. This style was adopted by both Presbyterian and Episcopalian wings of the Scottish Kirk but there were some attempts to introduce Baroque elements into church building after the Restoration. Andrew was probably, like that of Iona, constructed with wattles and turf and other constructive features of the Norman style gradually changed at the same time as the arch. In the Catholic Church found itself divided with rival popes in Rome and Avignon.
